

12th January 2012

Dear Parents

Please be advised that the J3 Examination Week, advertised in the Calendar for w/c 30th January, will not begin until the following week, i.e. w/c 6th February.

Pupils will be notified of the change of dates. The revised date will allow for an extra week's tuition and give pupils additional revision time.

Apologies if the alteration causes any inconvenience.

With good wishes

Yours sincerely

S A Malone
