

Midday Supervisor Job Description

Henry VIII founded The King's School in 1541 and for over four hundred years the school occupied buildings adjacent to the cathedral. The school moved to a new site on the Wrexham road, about one mile from the city centre, in 1960 and the new buildings were opened by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother in June that year. In 1989 additional buildings were opened by Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret. In 1994 there was an extensive development of the junior school and in January 2000 a further development of the senior school incorporating the impressive Wickson Library was completed.

An exciting major development plan was launched in October 2002. By September 2004 an all-weather playing surface, extensions and improvements to the art and technology centres, a new medical room and an additional classroom had been completed. The new music school was completed in 2005 and the old music school converted to provide additional teaching rooms.

The school retains strong links with the cathedral and with the city. It is Chester's oldest independent school and is proud to serve the city as well as the surrounding areas of Cheshire, the Wirral and North Wales.
